The Oratorians of Rock Hill, S.C. are a community of priests and brothers following the spirit of their founder, St. Philip Neri. Founded over 400 years ago in Rome, they focus on the formation of laity, serve five parishes, sponsor a Center for Spirituality, and do a variety of ministries.

Founded in Rock Hill in 1934, the Oratorians have been champions of social justice in the area of labor relations, desegregation, Civil Rights movement activities and resettlement of refugees. They are the oldest and largest Oratory in the United States.
