Native American Veterans Assistance helps those who have sacrificed so much to protect our nation and its people. They provide food, shelter, and supplies to vets in need—no matter which branch of the military they served in.

Native American Veterans Assistance (NAVA) serves the veterans of Native American Communities across America. Seeing these Warriors broken and battered is heart-breaking. So many of our vets are facing grave economic and substandard living conditions. NAVA works on reservations where very few resources are available. NAVA knows first-hand the struggles or not only the Native American communities, but also the great warriors coming home from service to the greatest nation on the planet. <https://nativevets.org/>
