This list is comprised of faithful Catholic donors dedicated to caring for animals in honor of the patron saint of pets and animals - St. Francis of Assisi.

The Sisters of St. Francis of Assisi have committed themselves to working in varied areas of ministry such as pastoral ministers, teachers, social workers, medical professionals, interpreters, administrators, musicians, and other ministries. Many of the "retired Sisters" volunteer their time in a vast array of settings and continue to work as agents of long-term social change. Their combined commitment gives them the ability to create a better world for the people in neighborhoods and communities around the world.
